CANNON REPORT

[illegible]

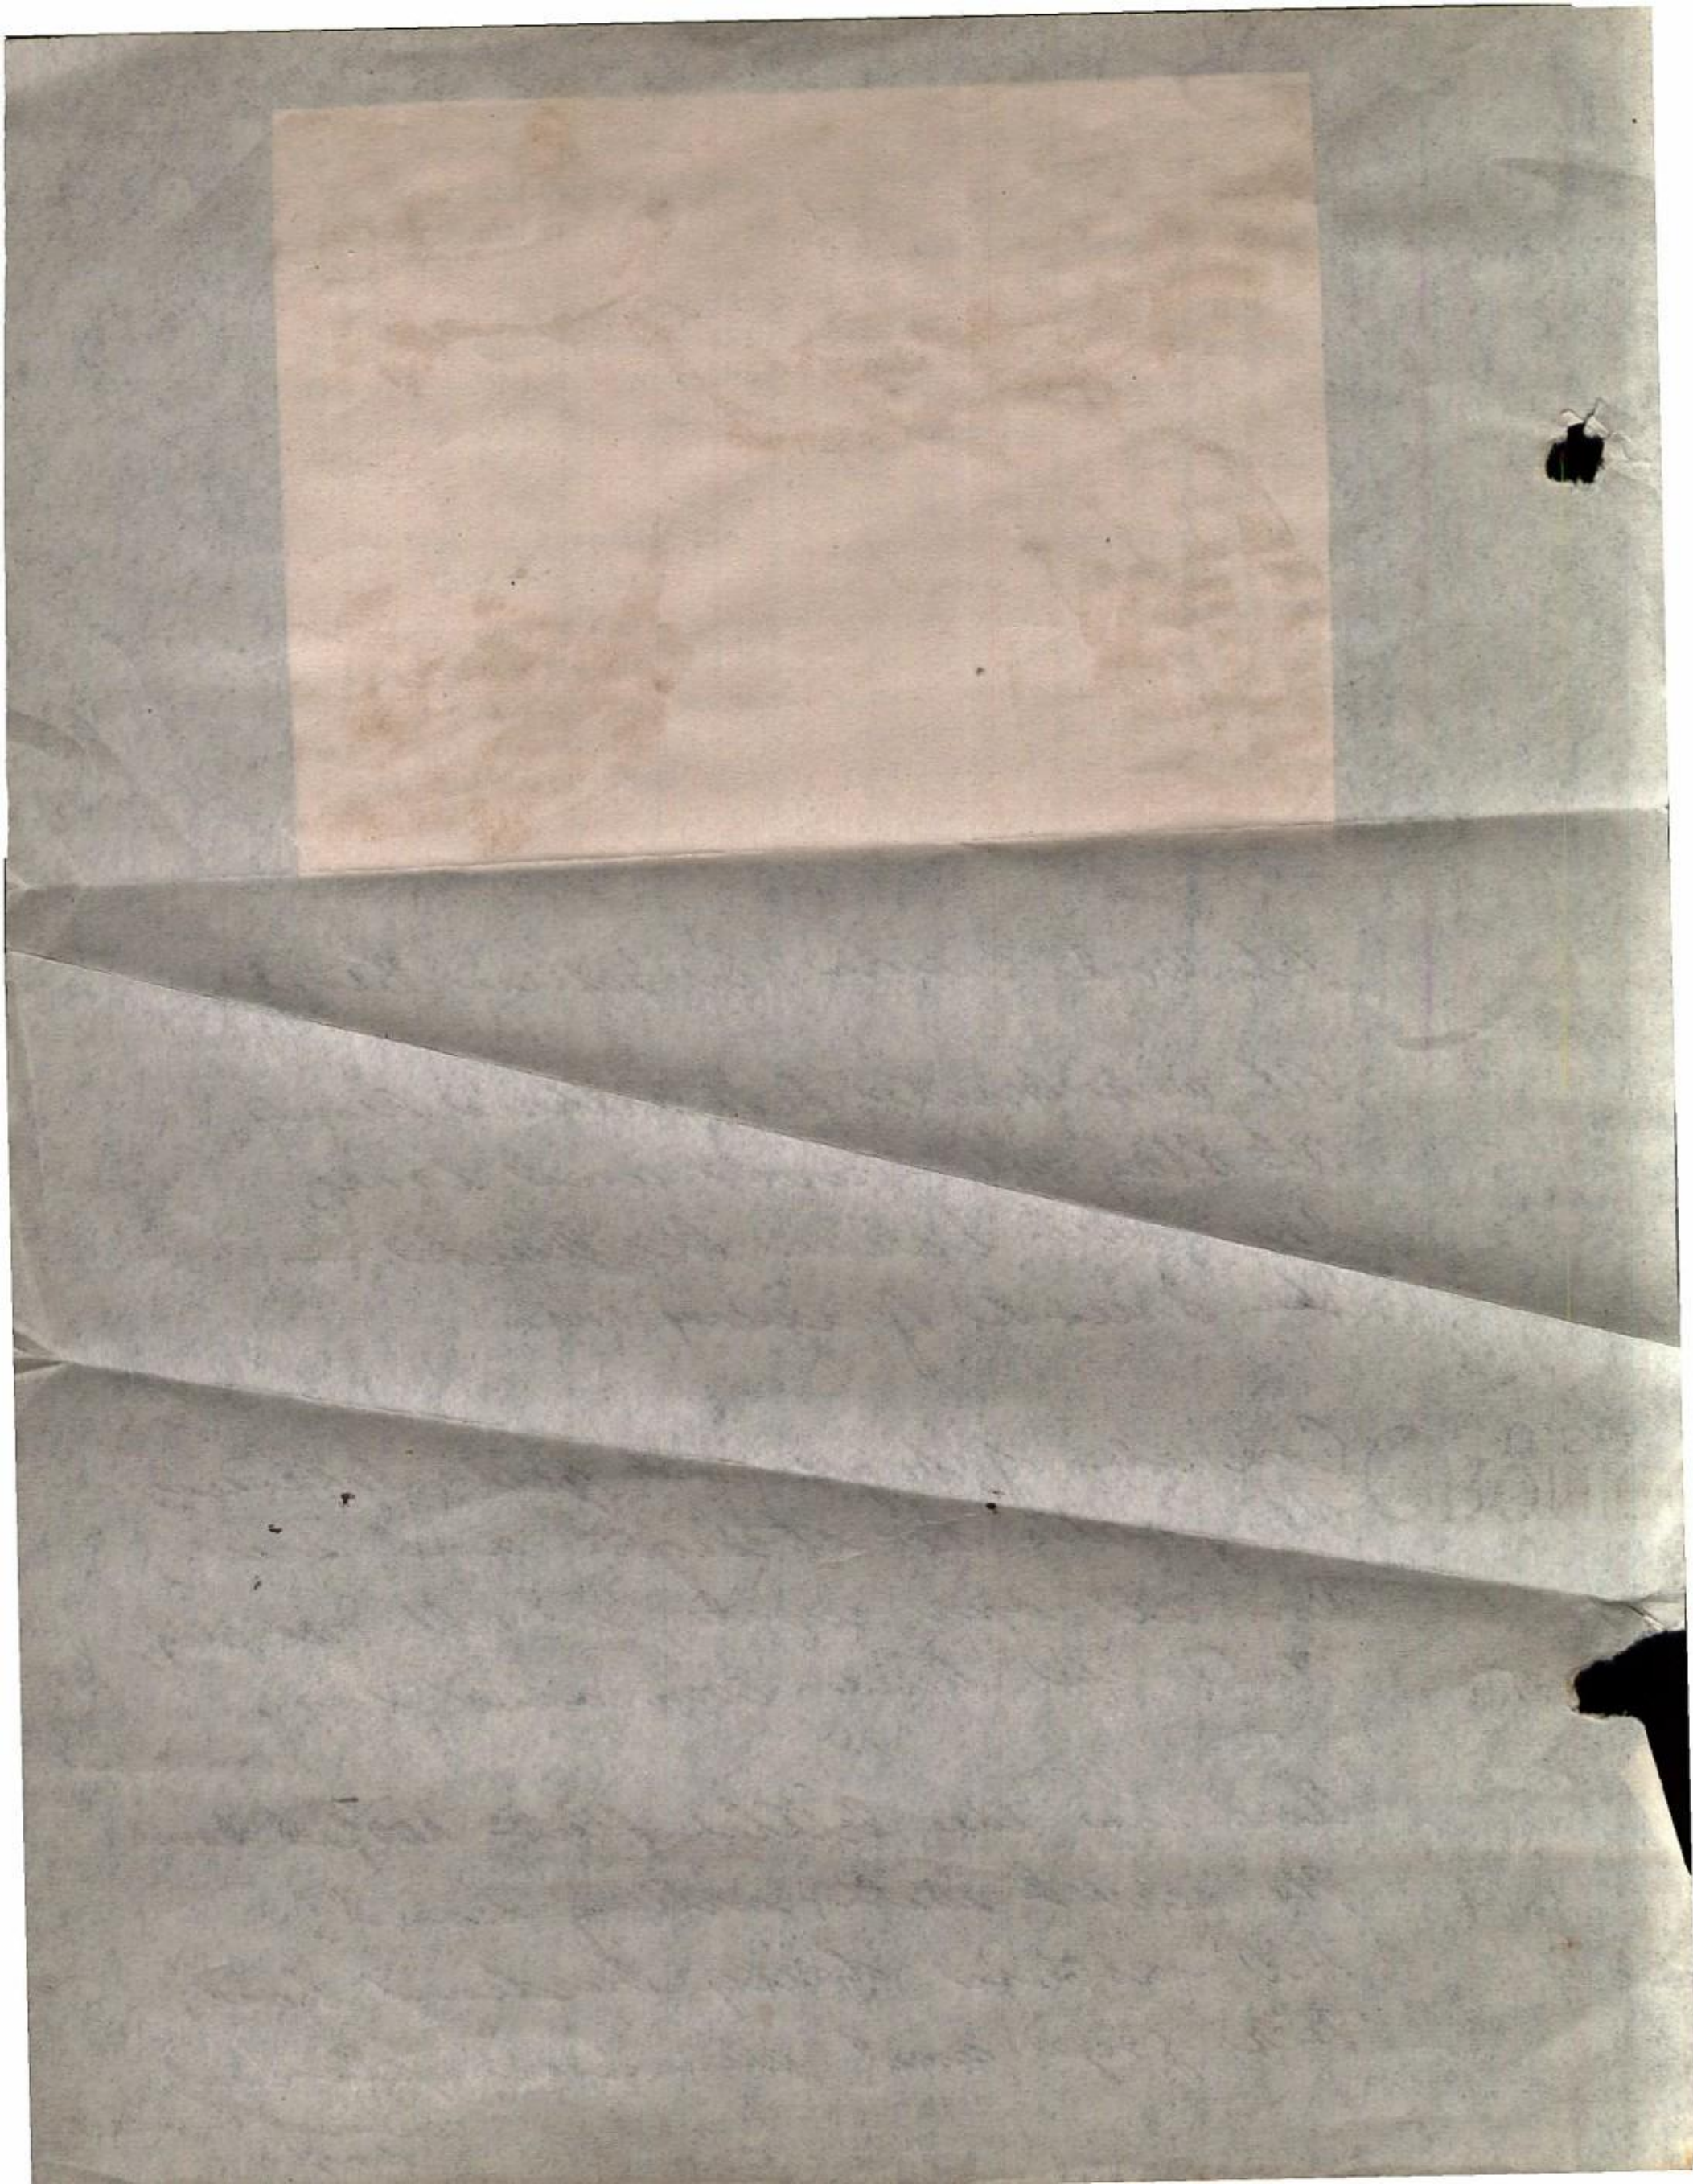

At Work Beside His Father's Bench

At work beside his father's bench,
At play when work was done;
In quiet Galilee he lived —
The friend of every one.

Comrade of boys and girls like us,
Playmate so straight and true,
In all our work, in all our play,
Make us true comrades too.

And in the little flat-roofed house
He served with willing hand;
His mother's daily burdens bore,
Her joys and pleasures planned.

DEDICATION

MRS. AMY RISER HARRINGTON HUMPHREY

To Mrs. Amy Riser Harrington Humphrey whose faithful, wholehearted efforts and accomplishments which have played a very important role in the success of our paper, THE CANNON REPORT, whose undying devotion toward our school, and whose friendliness and advice to the students has helped to promote higher standards in our school, we, the senior class of the J. W. Cannon High School, with deepest appreciation and our sincere wishes for much happiness in the future, do hereby dedicate this 1946 yearbook.

HISTORY

Early in September in the year of our Lord nineteen-hundred and forty-two, a small group of students entered the doors of K. H. S. Although the group was small in number it was great in power, and was soon to make a name for itself. That first year we, the freshman class, did not have the privilege of having class officers, for we were so few in number we had to be put in with the sophomores. We struggled through our studies, and the next year we dropped our names of "green freshmen" and became sophomores.

With our rise in rating we also had a rise in confidence in ourselves; we were a little less afraid of slipping. This year we selected as our class officers: Betty Benton, President; Bobby Barger, Vice-President; Margaret Chisholm, Secretary. Under their guidance we had a very successful year.

We again changed our names, this time to juniors. We were very proud of the fact that we had successfully completed two years of high school, but we were to find that there was much hard work ahead of us. With Mrs. Coleman and Misses Ruth Orders and Julia Oates as our advisers, we selected our class officers: Johnny Felker, President; Betty Payne, Vice-President; Colon Critz, Secretary; Hardie Pilkinton, Treasurer. We presented as our class play, "He Was A Gay Senorita", which was under the direction of Miss Oates. The event which rated above all that year was the Junior-Senior Prom.

Time passed quickly, and again we changed our names. This time we called ourselves seniors. Proof was soon found that there was much work to being a senior, so we settled down to accomplish the tasks set before us. This year our officers were: Ray Voss, President; Ray Frye, Vice-President; Betty Benton, Secretary; Doris Williams, Treasurer. Our advisers were Mrs. Richmond Smith and Miss Loraine Gray.

Along with the work we enjoyed the many activities around the school: dances, basketball, football, and all the others, but nothing could top the wonderful times we had at the Senior-Junior and Junior-Senior.

At last Graduation day came. Some of us were happy, some sad to be leaving the school we had come to love. We were now ready to accept any challenge the future held for us.

PROPHECY

June 1, 1961

Betty Marilyn Benton
Head of Costume Designing
Paramount Studios
Hollywood, California

Dear Betty,

I was so glad to receive your letter. As you were saying, fifteen years certainly has been a long time. I was just thinking the other day how much I would like to see all our old classmates and talk with them.

Well, since you'd like to know all about what our class of '46 is doing, I'll try to tell you.

Thelma Barnhardt, Loma Cook, Clara Armstrong, and Maxine Lambert are ideal housewives.

Betty Etta Shinn, Doris McConnell, and Betty Lou Belcher are private secretaries.

In the field of medicine are Bryan Lowery, Bobby Teague, and Gene Phillips.

Among our missionaries in Japan is Juanita Daniels, and Sarah Ridenhour is a Bible teacher at Wake Forest College.

Rushie Marlin, Betty Zane Parker, and Betty Payne, some of our class beauties, are now John Powers models.

Audrey Honeycutt and Jerlean Lear are operating beauty shops of their own.

Ray Krimminger and Felton Mattox are lawyers in Washington.

Charles Hileman is running a night club in New York, while Jo Ann Benson is a soloist for Charles Winecoff's famous dance band.

Catherine Bost is a dramatics teacher, and Valda Stirewalt is teaching book-keeping at the University of North Carolina.

The new manager of the Belk's shoe department is Winfred Whitten, and manager of the new and modern A & P store is Doyle McDuffie.

Juline Lindley and Grace Sides are co-owners of the "Glamour Dress Shop" in Kannapolis.

Playing on the all star girls basketball team is Merle Dalrymple.

Doris Williams, Betty Smith and Dorothy Beaver are telephone operators.

John Burris and Bill Carter are traveling salesmen.

One of our smart seniors, Peggy Daniels, is a copyreader for the New York Times.

Two of our other smart seniors, Peggy Harmon and Hazel Hendren, are among those working on a new method of shorthand.

Herman Cline is an electrical engineer in California.

"Shorty" Westmoreland is a second Joan Davis on Ray Voss's radio show.

Wallace Hale and Lewis Echerd are playing on the all star football team.

You can always see a bunch of kids hanging around Hoover Moss's Soda Shoppe listening to some of his funny stories.

Hilda Payne and Betty Price are college professors.

A teen-age canteen for the younger set is run by Eloise Lee and Margie Herrin.

Alfred Herman, Herbert Honeycutt, and Cyril Herlocker are working on a new brand of lipstick and fingernail polish for all the lovely young ladies.

Among the business men, we have Sherman Julian and Lindy Stephens.

Virginia Carter and Mildred Crepps are hat designers.

Carolyn Sherrill is head librarian at the Y. M. C. A., and Frances Robinson and Rosa Lee Sibbett are assistant librarians.

Cleo and Fleauo Purser are running a day nursery.

Paul Scarborough, Buddy Coggins and Robert Clayton have summer cabins to rent at the beach.

In the field of journalism are Eunice Trull, Doris Belk, and Lois Richardson.

Mary Frances Belk is advertising manager for the New York Times.

Among those who are living in the country and taking it easy are Marina Athanaelos, Katherine Johnson, Helen Love and Dora McLain.

Charles Sechler and Robert Huie are co-owners in a new modern service station.

Doris Jean Daniels and Edmona Baker are traveling around the world.

The cutest kids' shop in Kannapolis is run by Gwendolyn and Jacquolyn Tyson.

The "K", Town Hotel, is run by Don Dwiggins, and some of his hostesses are Elsie Mullis, Billie Jean Query and Pat Reese.

Paul Byrd and Garvis Moore are coaching football at Cannon High.

The best plumbing business in town is run by Colon Critz and Jimmy Powell.

Ray Frye and Kenneth Curly are civil engineers.

A recreation center in Florida is very fortunate in having Margaret Cline working with them.

Aubrey Tucker is now a colonel in the army.

Photography has become the profession of Charles Bost and Bobby McDonald.

You know, I've really enjoyed talking about all of our classmates. It seems as though it were only yesterday that we all walked down the aisle and received our diplomas.

So 'til we meet again.

Love,

PAT REESE

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina
County of Cabarrus
City of Kannapolis

We, the senior class of 1946 of J. W. Cannon High School, being of sound body and fairly sound mind, with many happy memories of four happy years, and bidding farewell to our Alma Mater, faculty, and friends, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our Principal and teachers we wish to express our deepest appreciation for their patience and understanding; realizing that we have given them many grey hairs.

ARTICLE II

To the incoming freshmen we leave our hopes that their four years in K. H. S. may mean as much to them as ours have meant to us.

ARTICLE III

To the sophomores we leave the assurance that you do not know everything yet.

ARTICLE IV

To the rising juniors we leave the beginning of two joyous school years ahead.

ARTICLE V

To the dignified seniors of next year we leave our seats in the auditorium; our teachers; Miss Gray and Mrs. Smith, our debts and our best wishes for a triumphant year and a glorious finale.

ARTICLE VI

I, Clara Dean Armstrong, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go with one boy almost three years to Betty Julian.

I, Marina Athanaelos, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Latin to Christine Basset, Susie Adams, and "Cookie" Baker, knowing they will never have as much fun as our class under Mr. P. V. Parks.

I, Thelma Lee Barnhardt, do hereby will and bequeath my love for good music and my good times at Cannon High School to my brother, Bobby Harold Barnhardt.

I, Dorothy Beaver, hereby will and bequeath my good times, and my senior seat to Mildred Miller, who is a rising senior.

I, Betty Lou Belcher, do hereby will and bequeath my position as snapshot editor to anyone crazy enough to want it. Also my ability to graduate to Johnny Hilton and Don H. Whitley.

I, Doris Belk, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass Spanish to Hazel Childers, knowing that she could use a little help.

I, Mary Frances Belk, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Business Manager of the CANNON REPORT to Peggy Cannon, hoping she can make more of a success than I did, and my place as president of Quill and Scroll to Hattie Wallace.

I, Jo Ann Benson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with teachers and to stay out of detention hall to Charles Rabb, who spends most of his time there.

I, Betty Benton, hereby will and bequeath my position as society editor of the CANNON REPORT to "Pud" Oates, hoping she will enjoy snooping into other people's business as much as I did.

I, Catherine Bost, do hereby will and bequeath my position as president of the Student Body to any member of the female sex who is brave enough to try it.

I, Charles Bost, do hereby will and bequeath my "Ruptured Duck" to Hoyte Robinson.

I, Doris Bost, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times to my brother, Harold Bost, who is just entering high school.

I, John Burris, do hereby will and bequeath my "big" mouth to any sucker who wishes one.

I, Bill Carter, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the senior class to Cural Furr, who can't get out of the freshman class.

I, Virginia Carter, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to "Libby" Tyson.

I, Herman Cline, do hereby will and bequeath my chemistry book to the person who borrowed it, because it is now paid for.

I, Margaret Cline, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to Howard Graham, my position as head monitor to Hattie Wallace, and my vast knowledge of Spanish to Miss "Toddy" Page. Maybe "she" can use it.

I, Loma Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my love for tall boys and good times in High School to Jean McManus, who is very short and is a rising junior.

I, Mildred Crepps, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep quiet in class to my brother, Billy, knowing that he can't.

I, Colon Critz, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to bowl to Joe Nimer and my ability to out run large boys to Harold "Muscles" King, if he can find any boy larger than himself.

I, Merle Dalrymple, do hereby will and bequeath my position as captain of the girls basketball team and "Most Athletic Girl" to Virgie Blackwelder.

I, Doris Jean Daniels, do hereby will and bequeath all of the good times and troubles I've had during my five years of high school to Iris Harrington, hoping that she enjoys them as much as I have.

I, Juanita Daniels, do hereby will and bequeath my dignity and good times at Cannon High to Wanda Joe Lee, who is a rising senior.

I, Peggy Daniels, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make passing grades to Wilma Sain.

I, Ray Frye, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school in three years to anybody who has enough ambition (or sucker enough) to try it. I also will my office of Vice-President of the Senior Class to any guy who is lucky enough to get it, hoping that he will do a better job than I have.

I, Kenneth Gurley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to try to finish J. W. Cannon High School in three years to anyone who wants to do so.

I, "Peg" Harmon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to chew chewing gum in class and get away with it to any unlucky underclassman who can't.

I, Hazel Hendren, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get out of carrying any books home to "Libby" Tyson.

I, Cyril Herlocker, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get in and out of trouble easily to Donald Efrd, and my position as 1st Lieutenant of the Band to any fool that is sucker enough to take it.

I, Alfred Herman, do hereby will and bequeath my love for boxing to Red Torrence, and my love for dancing to Harriet Hartis.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Charles Hileman, do hereby will and bequeath all of my troubles to "Don" Ebird, hoping that he will have the pleasure of having the same someday.

I, Audrey Honeycutt, do hereby will and bequeath my red hair and flirtatiousness to Doris Vickery, a rising senior.

I, Herbert Honeycutt, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the glee club to anyone who can sing and my ability to go around the horse shoe, making fifty miles an hour, to anyone who likes to fly low.

I, Katherine Johnson, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the glee club to anyone who is lucky enough to get it, and my giggles to any one who desires them.

I, Ray Alexander Krimminger, Jr., Esq., do hereby will and bequeath my self-appointed position of Honorary Student Adviser to the School Board to a person who will meet all the qualifications of this position, my adopted son, "Shorty" Upright.

I, Maxine Lambert, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady with the same boy for a year and to become engaged before graduating to "Pud" Oates, knowing she already has several prospects.

I, Jerlene Lear, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with boys to Nancy Wagoner, a coming senior, who is very shy.

I, Eloise Lee, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to miss the bus and still be on time to school to Jimmy Torrence, knowing that he needs it badly.

I, Juline Lindley, do hereby will and bequeath my geometry book to anyone who knows more about it than I do, and to

"Mackie" Fowler my ability to get along with Concord (she knows what I mean).

I, Helen Love, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the Navy to Lois Petrea, hoping she will find as much pleasure in it as I have.

I, Bryan Lowery, do hereby will and bequeath my English book to the finder, hoping he enjoys using it as much as I used to.

I, Rushie Marlin, do hereby will and bequeath my position as cheerleader to Margaret Ann Bradford and my well-earned title of the "Biggest Flirt" in the Senior Class to Evelyn Alexander (also well earned).

I, Louise Meeks, do hereby will and bequeath my love for dark headed boys to Hazel Rabb. She likes them too. Hubba! Hubba!

I, Garvis. Morris, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get out of school to James Rufus Whitley and my position as manager of the basketball team to Jack Kelly.

I, Elsie Ann Mullis, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Imogene Crainshaw, and my seat in first period bookkeeping to my sister, Johnsie.

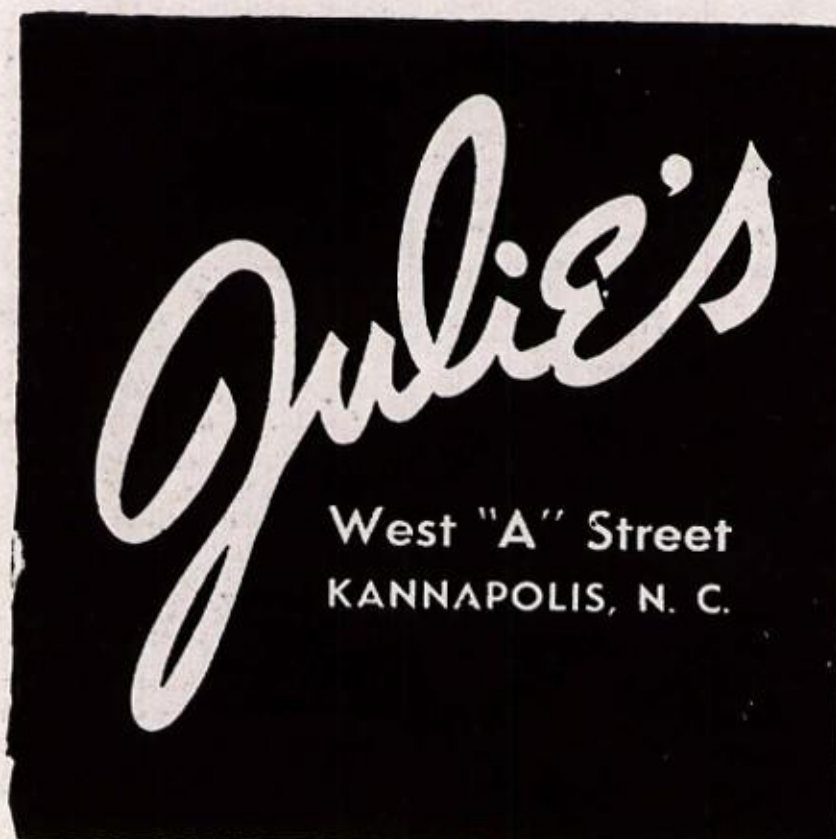

I, Bobby McDonald, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have fun while driving the school bus to Tommy Leebrick.

I, Doris McConnell, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the Navy to Ceola Fink and my long hair to Peggy Teal (she needs a little more).

I, Doyle McDuffie, do hereby will and bequeath my philandering nature to E. H. Williford, and my ability to get to school on time to Bob Roberts, and my position on the basketball team to Jay Wise, and to Louise Meeks the thing she sought and fought for so dearly. (I think! My heart!)

I, Dora McLain, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Florietta Daniels, and my home room seat to Iris Barnhardt.

I, Betty Zane Parker, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have fun with any boy I date to some freshman or sophomore girl who wishes or needs it.

I, Betty Payne, do hereby will and bequeath to John Watson, the pictures in my bill fold, which he took anyway. To Jane Quinn, I leave my curly hair on rainy days.

I, Hilda Payne, do hereby will and bequeath my enjoyment of dancing and my ability to dance to "Babe" Dayvault, who certainly can use it.

I, Jimmy W. Powell, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to shoot pool to Joe Nimer, and to Harold "Muscles" King, I leave my voice to go with his bird legs.

I, Betty Price, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the office to Thelma Angell, hoping she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Cleo Purser, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play basketball as well as my love for it to Helen Miller.

I, Fleauo Purser, do hereby will and bequeath my position in basketball and the love for it to Ellen Bassinger.

I, Billie Jean Query, do hereby will and bequeath the privilege of having parties at my house and my good times at Cannon High to Betty Jane Julian.

I, Hazel Rabb, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in front of 205 to anyone who can stand the rush, hoping they won't get killed as often as I did.

I, Pat Reese, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of a jam to Sara Watkins and my scrumptious times to my sister Carolyn, hoping she'll enjoy them as much as I have.

I, Lois Richardson, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Chief Typist of the CANNON REPORT to Mae Shaver and my monitor post in the north tower to any warm-hearted person lucky enough to get it.

I, Sarah Ridenhour, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to Ida Mae Norris, my ability to enter class late without an excuse to Bette Chloe McCombs, and my position as Dance Chairman to Bobby Steele, knowing that she can do a much better job than I have.

I, Frances Robinson, do hereby will and bequeath my love for black haired boys with blue eyes to any girl who thinks she can handle them. Hubba! Hubba!

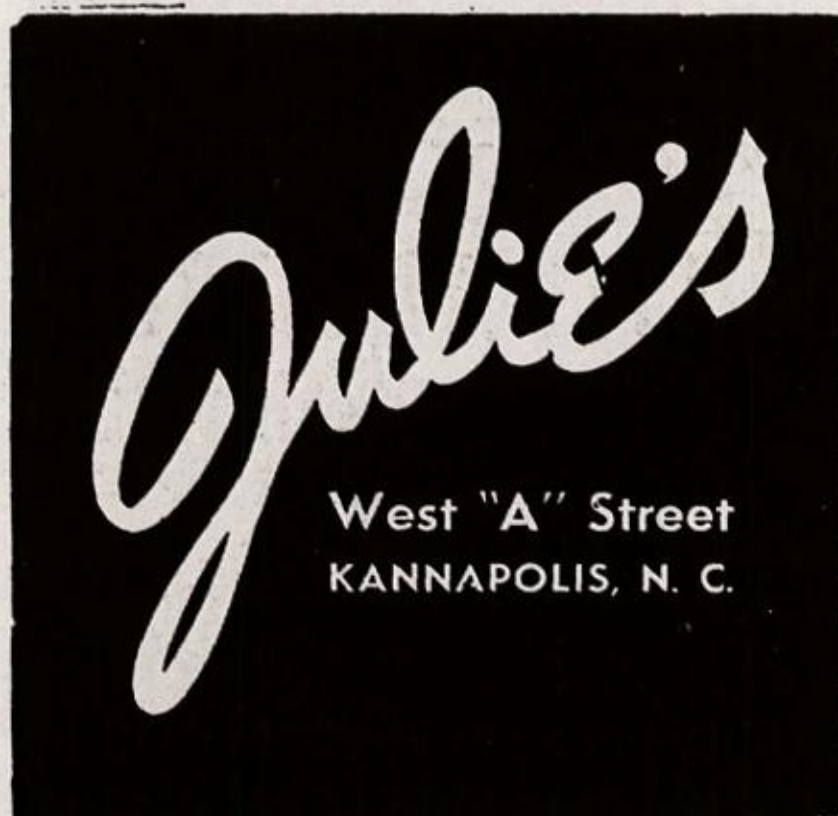

I, Paul Scarborough, do hereby will and bequeath my friendship with Mr. Miller to Bobby Fink.

I, Carolyn Sherrill, do hereby will and bequeath my love for sailors (especially veterans) to Dot Rodden, and my job at "My Shop" to anyone in the junior class who is eligible.

I, Betty Etta Shinn, do hereby will and bequeath my senior seat to Doris Yoder, hoping she'll make it and my position as Assistant Advertising Manager of the CANNON REPORT to Ceola Fink.

CONGRATULATIONS, TEACHERS and PARENTS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Rosa Lee Sibbett, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in bookkeeping to my sister, Betty, hoping she understands it better than I did.

I, Grace Sides, do hereby will and bequeath my wish for a man like Charles Parker (or a little older) to some girl nearer his age.

I, Betty Jean Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my giggles to Marie Smith, a rising senior, since she doesn't know how.

I, Bobby Teague, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname, "Monk," to anyone it fits, hoping it serves him as well as it has me.

I, Eunice Trull, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to always have fun and still pass all my subjects to Hazel Childeres and Joanne Roberts, knowing that they both need it.

I, Aubrey Tucker, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, Lindsay, luck in the following school year and a successful graduation.

I, Gwendolyn Tyson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate from high school to "Libby" Tyson.

I, Jacquolyn Tyson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make friends to my sister, "Libby" Tyson.

I, Ray Voss, do hereby will and bequeath my curly hair to Bud Black, for I am sure he can appreciate it.

I, Ann Westmoreland, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make wise cracks and get by with them, to "Bets" Julian, and my love for Andy Patterson to Sara Watkins, hoping she won't have to fight for him as much as I have.

I, Doris Williams, do hereby will and bequeath my love for studying to Ruth Bowers, hoping that she will settle down for a while.

I, Charles Ervan Winecoff, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to peroxide my hair and have it look as good as it does to Nat Gilliam, who certainly looks like he needs it.

I, Doris Wise, do hereby will and bequeath my Spanish book to Faye Howard, hoping that she will learn more Spanish than I have; and my position as second horn player in the band to Ellen Bassinger.

I, George Mattox, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to speak before the student body without getting nervous to Master J. L. Norris, Jr., and my love for Cannon High to the rising senior class.

We hereby declare this document, made on the first day of February, nineteen hundred and forty-six to be legal in every respect. It is the desire of the senior class that every wish herein be carried out. Witnessed this first day of February by:
